Message from the Chair

I hope you are having a healthy and safe summer holiday. The San Francisco Bay Area has its typical summer...foggy in the morning and sunshine in the afternoon. I hope everyone is enjoying Olympic games from London. And rooting for a safe and fair games.

A reminder to everyone June 2013 the World Congress will be held in the Netherlands. You can read more about this conference by going to the bottom of the page at www.isastutter.org

Also, during ISAD online conference October 2012 Maartje, from the Netherlands and ISA Board Director, will be writing an article on the upcoming conference.

ISA member organizations have had time to peruse suggested changes to ISA Constitution. I want to refresh your memory by recommending you to go to the June eNewsflash.

If you have any questions or comments please direct them to me.

Some of you may remember that I saw and met President Obama. Depending on the ok from white house, we can direct people to our website with picture. There is disclaimer to use pictures for personal use. We may be able to post on our facebook. I will let you know what they say.

Kindly,

Michael
